

DIRECTORS GUILD
OF GREAT BRITAIN

EDUCATIONAL GROUP MEMBERSHIP

Please complete both sides and return this form as addressed overleaf

Educational Group Membership applies to any training body, based in the UK, offering courses with a directing element, or courses where there is a cross-over of skills with the directing industry in any media.

An Educational Group shall be considered either as a relatively small independent specialist school or college, or as a department within a larger organization such as a University. The subscription fee is £120.00 per annum, and membership runs from September to August.

Educational Group Membership entitles an organization to:

- Regular newsletters and direct Magazine. These provide insights into the contemporary working practices of British directors; keep you informed of current debates within the industry, and any forthcoming events and workshops;
- The Directory & Listing in the Directory - Name, address and contact number (not full entry);
- 10% discount on DGGB Lectures and Seminars;
- 20% discount for students enrolled at the college or in the department on Individual Student Membership, giving them access to Guild events and master classes.
